

Registration/Login

Why has my account been suspended?

There are many reasons your account may have been suspended.

The most common reason is that emails are being bounced by your email address.

Because we cannot contact you via email in situation, your account will be immediately suspended.

To rectify the issue, use the contact us form and give us your username and make sure you contact us using the email address you registered with.

Other reasons may vary from incorrect information being filled in in your account to a severe misuse of the terms of use.

In any event, please contact us and we can inform you as to what the issues are and how to rectify them.

Unique solution ID: #1028

Author: Henryk Kobylanski

Last update: 2015-02-01 22:52