Once the purchase is made, you need to send 100 points of ID to RCTrader.com in order for the website Admin to verify your identity. Verification usually takes ~24hrs. It is easiest to send information via email to email verify@rctrader.com however if you do not wish to email the information, you can request the Admin contact you to organize alternate means of sharing the information.

Once the information is received, it is cross-referenced with PayPal (or other payment data) as well as any other data points that RCTrader has at its disposal. Once the user's identity is confirmed, the label is applied to the user's account and the user is notified that the process is complete. Listings placed by a user with "Verified" status appear with a green "Account Verified" label underneath (see below):
